This document is valid for new policies purchased on or after the 7th April 2009 and for policies with a renewal date on or after the 1st May 2009.

INTRODUCTION

This is the Getcover Landlord's house insurance certificate. It outlines the general conditions of your cover and you should read it carefully with your insurance schedule which we have emailed to you separately.

This certificate, along with the information on risk you gave us on the Getcover website, the statement of fact, and the declaration and schedule, are evidence of the contract of insurance between you and us.

We will, depending on the certificate conditions, insure you under the sections shown in your schedule during any period of insurance for which you have paid.

CANCELLATION

We hope you are happy with the cover this certificate provides. Please make sure that the certificate and schedule meet your home insurance needs. If the insurance cover does not meet your needs, please return it to us within 14 days of taking out the cover. We will return your premium less a charge for the period on cover.

We do not have to renew any insurance and may, at any time, cancel the cover by sending you 14 days' notice at your last known address.

As long as you pay the premium in full, you can cancel the cover by giving us notice in writing. You will be entitled to a refund of part of the premium for the period of insurance you have not yet used.

STATEMENT OF FACT

By accepting this insurance you confirm that the facts shown below are true. These statements, and all the information that you, or anyone on your behalf, gave us before we agreed to insure you, form the basis on which cover is arranged.

If anything in these statements is not correct, we will be entitled to treat this insurance as if it had never existed.

You should keep this statement of fact for your records.

FACTS

You must agree that the property and anyone insured under the certificate keep to the following conditions.

1. The property must be let out as one unit, not as sub-divided units
2. Your property must only be rented to families; couples; retired persons; or persons in full time employment.
3. The property may have up to 6 tenants at any one time.
4. A written tenancy agreement must be in place and maintained throughout the term of the tenancy.
5. At least 85% of the property must be of standard construction (in other words, built of brick, stone or concrete with a slate, tiled or metal decking roof).
6. The property must be in a good state of repair and be properly maintained and built after 1900.
7. The property must not be used for business or commercial purposes other than as a rental property or as a home office.
8. The property must not have suffered damage by flood and not be situated in an area with a history of flooding or subsidence, heave or landslip.
9. The property must not be left empty for more than 30 days in a row in one year.
10. Neither you nor any person living with you have made any claim or suffered a loss under a household insurance cover within the last 3 years.
11. Neither you nor any person living with you must have ever been convicted of any offence other than minor driving offences.
12. Neither you nor any person living with you has ever been refused insurance or had any special conditions placed on you.
13. The property must be fitted with the following security devices;
 - any door giving access to your property must be fitted with mortise deadlocks or deadlocking rim latches; and
 - all sliding or patio doors must be fitted with appropriate security locks.
14. In the event that your property forms part of a converted building, all entry and exit points must lead directly to the exterior of the building. IE your property cannot lead on to a shared corridor or hallway.
15. The property must have at least 2 working smoke detectors at all times.
16. Whenever the property is left empty:
 - all doors and windows must be closed and fastened;
 - all door locks as shown above must be in fully working order; and
 - all keys must be removed from locks and kept in a secure place.

ROOF MAINTENANCE WARRANTY (Flat Roof Warranty)

It is a condition precedent to liability in respect of damage by Storm or Flood that any flat felted roof portion of the property must be inspected at least once every two years by a qualified builder or property surveyor and any defect brought to light by that inspection shall be rectified immediately.

- caused by animals owned or in the care custody or control of you or a member of your household; or
- excluded elsewhere in this section.

11. Breaking of glass

Accidentally breaking fixed glass in doors and windows, and accidentally breaking sanitaryware.

This does not include loss or damage:

- if the buildings have been empty for more than 30 days in a row; or
- if the buildings are unfurnished.

12. Architect’s surveyor’s and legal fees and the cost of removing debris

Architect’s surveyor’s and legal fees you reasonably need to pay and the cost of removing debris and shoring up, demolishing or dismantling any part of the buildings following loss or damage under this section.

13. Service pipes and cables

Accidental damage to service pipes and cables which supply the buildings.

14. Fire brigade charges

We will pay for charges made by a local authority in line with The Fire Services Act 1981 to control or put out a fire affecting the buildings in circumstances which give rise to a claim under this insurance.

The most we will pay under this section is €1,500.

15. Loss of rent and alternative accommodation

If the residential property cannot be lived in because of any cause insured under this section we will pay for:

- loss of rent due to you, accommodation for you and any member of your household; and
- any ground rent which you still owe.

The most we will pay under this section is 20% of the buildings sum insured.

17. Trace and access

We will pay up to 750 to remove and replace part of the buildings needed to repair any fixed household water or heating system if water or oil has escaped.

18. Purchaser’s interest clause

If you sign a contract to sell the residential property, the purchaser will be entitled to the benefit of the insurance under this section up to the date the sale completes as long as the buildings are not otherwise insured.

19. Public authorities

We will pay the cost of keeping to any government, local authority or building regulation if they specifically apply to areas of the premises damaged by any of the insured causes for buildings.

20. Liability to the public

We will pay any amounts you legally have to pay as owner (but not as occupier) of the buildings for causing:

- accidental bodily injury, death or disease to any person; or
- accidental loss or damage to property which happens during the period of insurance shown in the schedule.

We will pay up to 1,300,000 for any one event including any legal fees, costs and expenses, you pay or agree to pay with our permission.

In the event of your death your legal representative will have the benefit of this section for liability incurred by you for an event covered by this section.

We will not cover liability for:

- the death of or injury (including illness and disease) to you or any of your employees;
- accidental loss or damage to property belonging to you or any of your employees.
- any contract which imposes on you liability which you would not otherwise have been under;
- the ownership or use of any lift owned by you or for the maintenance of which you are responsible;
- the ownership or occupation of any land or building other than the buildings described in the schedule;
- any willful or malicious act;
- any profession, trade or business other than the provision of rented accommodation at the insured residential property;
- any matter arising in a personal capacity other than as owner of the buildings;
- any action for damage brought in a Court of Law outside the Republic of Ireland;
- arising from work of a construction or reconstruction nature or structural alterations or demolition or any operation incidental thereto; or

- any fees or costs resulting from preparing any claim under the certificate or any other costs you pay without our written permission.

INDEX LINKING (BUILDINGS)

We will increase your buildings sum insured automatically each month in line with the House Rebuilding Cost Index produced by the Department of the Environment. When we renew your cover we will work out the premium on the new sum insured.

SETTLING CLAIMS (BUILDINGS)

1. If the buildings are damaged by any of the causes shown in section 1, we will pay the full costs of repairing them or reinstating them as new, as long as the buildings are in good repair and the sum insured is not less than the full cost of rebuilding the buildings as new.
2. We will take off an amount for wear and tear if the buildings are not in a good state of repair before the incident giving rise to the damage or if the sum insured is less than the full cost of rebuilding the building as new.
3. If the replacement or repair is not carried out, we will pay the reduction in the market value of your home caused by the damage. However, we will not pay more than the cost of the replacement, repair or rebuilding work which would have been carried out.
4. The most we will pay is the buildings sum insured under this section.
5. We will not reduce the sum insured by the amount of any claim we pay.

AVERAGE CLAUSE (BUILDINGS)

If at the time of the loss or damage, the sum insured on buildings is less than the full reinstatement cost (rebuilding as new), then you will be your own insurer for the difference. We will only pay our share of the loss or damage which your sum insured bears to such cost.

SECTION 2 - CONTENTS

We will provide cover by paying a claim or replacing or repairing loss or damage to the contents by any of the causes listed in the paragraphs below. The loss or damage must happen during any period of insurance, depending on the conditions and exclusions shown in the certificate.

- if the buildings are unfurnished.
- unless involving entry or exit by forceable or violent means
- loss of money from out buildings or garages; or
- stealing by you or a member of your family.

6. Any aircraft or flying object or anything falling from them or any rail or road vehicle or animal damaging contents

This does not include loss or damage:

- caused by domestic animals; or
- unless the buildings have been damaged at the same time.

7. Falling television or radio aerials, masts, satellite dishes and falling trees or branches.

This does not include loss or damage:

- caused by tree felling or lopping branches.

8. Riot, civil commotion, malicious damage, strikes, labour disturbances and vandalism.

This does not include loss or damage:

- if the buildings have been empty for more than 30 days in a row;
- if the buildings are unfurnished; or
- caused by malicious damage or vandalism committed by any person legally on the premises or invited into the premises by you or your tenant(s).

9. Subsidence or heave of the site on which the buildings stand, or landslip.

This does not include loss or damage:

- by new buildings bedding down;
- by filled-in land or newly made up ground settling or the coast or river bank wearing away;
- the first €250 of any claim;
- to floor slabs, unless the foundations beneath the walls are damaged at the same time;
- caused by demolition, structural repairs or alterations, using faulty materials, faulty workmanship or faulty design; or
- unless the buildings are damaged at the same time.

10. Breaking of glass

We will pay for accidentally breaking fixed glass in doors, windows, plate glass tops, fixed glass in furniture, glass shelving, mirrors, ceramic hobs and accidentally breaking sanitary ware.

This does not include loss or damage:

- if the buildings have been empty for more than 30 days in a row;
- if the buildings are unfurnished;
- to hand mirrors; or
- where other insurance applies.

11. Liability to domestic employees

We will pay any amounts you have to pay as an employer for causing death, bodily injury or illness to any domestic employee while they are working for you during the period of cover.

The most we will pay under this section for all claims arising from one incident is €2,600,000. This includes all legal costs and expenses which you have to pay.

This does not include liability for:

- any action for damage brought in a court of Law outside the Republic of Ireland;
- any agreement unless liability would have otherwise applied;
- any wilful or malicious damage;
- work of a construction or reconstruction nature or structural alterations or demolition or any operation incidental thereto;
- accidents to independent consultants or contractors and/or their employees; or
- death, bodily injury or illness caused to tenants.

12. Landlord's Contents in the open

We will pay for loss or damage as a result of any cause under this section while the contents are outside, but within the boundaries of the land belonging to your rental property.

The most we will pay under this section is €500.

This does not include loss or damage:

- caused by storm or flood;
- to pedal cycles or money;
- if the buildings have been empty for more than 30 days in a row; or
- if the buildings are unfurnished.

13. Replacing door locks

We will pay the reasonable cost of replacing locks or parts of locks for the outside doors to your home and for safes and alarms fitted in your home if the keys to those locks have been stolen following a break-in at the buildings.

The most we will pay under this section is €500.

14. Title deeds

We will pay the cost of preparing new title deeds to your home if they are lost or damaged as a result of any of the causes under this section while they are in your home or in your bank.

The most we will pay under this section is €500.

SETTLING CLAIMS (CONTENTS)

1. If the contents are damaged by any of the causes covered above, we will pay the full costs of repair or replacement as new.
2. We will take off an amount for wear and tear for the following items:
 - household linen and floor coverings more than 12 months' old.
3. The most we will pay is the contents sum insured under this section.
4. We will not reduce the sum insured by the amount of any claim we pay.

AVERAGE CLAUSE (CONTENTS)

If at the time of the loss or damage, the sum insured on contents is less than the full replacement cost (less an allowance for wear and tear for linen and floor coverings more than 12 months old), then you will be your own insurer for the difference. We will only pay our share of the loss or damage which your sum insured bears to such cost.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Fraud

If any claim under this insurance is in any way fraudulent, or if any fraudulent means are used by you, any member of your household, or anyone acting on your or their behalf, to gain any benefit under this certificate, the certificate will not be valid and no cover will apply.

Cancellation

We do not have to renew any insurance and may, at any time, cancel any insurance cover by sending 14 days' notice to you at your last known address.

As long as you have paid the premium in full, you can cancel the cover by giving us notice in writing. You will then be entitled to a refund of your premium for the period of insurance you have not yet used.

Other insurance

If at the time of any claim, there is other insurance covering the same liability, loss or damage, we will only be liable for our share.

Arbitration

If there is a dispute between you and us about our liability for a claim or the amount to be paid, we will refer it, within 12 months, to an arbitrator you and we agree to. If we cannot agree with you on an arbitrator, the President of the Law Society of Ireland will appoint one. The decision of the arbitrator will be final. If the dispute has not been referred to arbitration within a 12 month period, we will assume you have abandoned the claim

Duty of care

You and any member of your household must take all reasonable steps to protect the property and prevent accidents. You must keep the property in good repair.

Certificate changes

You must immediately tell us about any change which may affect your insurance cover or increase the risk of loss or damage. If you do not your cover may not be valid.

Claims

You must:

1. let us know immediately about any loss, damage or accident which may give rise to a claim;
2. not negotiate, admit or deny any claim without our written permission;
3. immediately let the police know of any loss involving stealing, burglary, malicious damage or vandalism;
4. immediately let the police know if you lose an insured item and plan making a claim under the All risks section;
5. not go ahead with any repairs (except for emergency repairs) or replacing lost or damaged items without getting our approval beforehand and you must give us the chance to inspect any damage or loss;
6. send to us, unanswered, any legal writ, summons or notice of prosecution or any other relevant legal document you receive; or
7. within 30 days of any insured loss, provide all documents, including original purchase receipts or other documents which support your claim.

We have the right to:

1. take over and carry out in your name the defence of any claim, or to settle any claim;
2. take legal proceedings in your name to recover any payment we have made under the certificate (we will pay the costs and keep any amount we recover); and
3. enter any building where loss or damage has taken place and deal with any salvage. However, you may not leave any property for us to deal with.

Contract law

The parties are free to choose the law applicable to this Insurance Contract. Unless specifically agreed to the contrary this insurance shall be subject to Irish Law.

Insurance Act 1936

Under section 93 of the Insurance Act 1936 all money we pay under this certificate will be paid in the Republic of Ireland.

Finance Act 1990

The appropriate stamp duty has been or will be paid in line with section 113 of the Finance Act 1990.

Business use

There is no cover provided for any property held in connection with any business, trade or professional purpose other than as a rental property for residential purposes only.

Matching items

If any insured item forms part of a set, suite, collection, or set of matching carpets, we will only pay for the value of the item which has been lost or damaged, and not for any other parts of the set, suite, collection, or set of matching carpets.

Fees

We will not pay any fees you incur in preparation of your claim

Pre-existing damage

We will not cover loss or damage caused before the cover starts. Also we will not cover loss or damage caused by an incident which took place before cover began.

Deliberate damage

We will not cover deliberate loss or damage caused by you or any member of the household.

Wear and tear and loss in value

We will not cover costs associated with the repairing or replacing of items which have lost value or can no longer be used as a result of ongoing wear and tear.

Wear and tear will include damage caused by:

- gradual deterioration or anything else which happens gradually including wet or dry rot or mildew;
- corrosion or rust;
- costs associated with maintenance or normal decoration;
- frost damage other than burst pipes, tanks, or appliances caused by freezing.
- weather;
- cleaning, restoring or repairs.
- window or door seals breaking;
- computer-equipment failing or breaking down including mechanical or electrical failure; and
- putting together or taking apart a device or item.

N.M.A. 464

Cyber risks

This cover does not apply to liability, loss, damage, cost or expense directly or indirectly caused by or resulting from:

1. changing or damaging; or
2. reducing the operational ability of a computer system, hardware, programme, software, information store, microchip, integrated circuit or similar device that results from maliciously or negligently transferring (electronic or otherwise) a computer programme that contains any malicious or damaging codes including a computer virus, worm, logic bomb or trojan horse.

Sonic bangs

Loss or damage caused by pressure waves from aircraft and other flying objects travelling at or above the speed of sound.

Confiscation

Loss or damage due to confiscation, requisition or destruction by order of any Government, or Public or Local Authority.

Consequential Loss

Consequential Loss or damage of any kind except as set out in this policy.

PROCESS FOR HANDLING CLAIMS

If your property is lost or damaged you should do the following.

1. Check your schedule and this certificate document to make sure that the loss is covered.
2. If your property is stolen or maliciously damaged, or if you lose a valuable item you must tell the police as soon as you notice the loss or damage. Please take a note of the name of the police officer, their number and Pulse crime reference (if the claim happens in the Republic of Ireland).
3. If there is an emergency such as a burst pipe, please contact a plumber or other professional to carry out emergency repairs. We will not pay more than €500 for emergency repairs. Then report the matter immediately to OSG Business Solutions before having any further work carried out. If possible, please take photographs of the damage and keep them in case we need them in the future.
4. Contact our appointed claims handling team, OSG Business Solutions, on + 353 1 261 1597, or send them an email with your name and certificate number and contact numbers including brief details of the loss to cnu@osq.ie
5. It is a condition that you report claims within 24 hours of discovering the loss or damage. If you have any doubt or questions, speak to OSG Business Solutions on (+) 353 1 261 1597.

6. Get any documents we may need as evidence such as estimates, police reports or receipts and so on for stolen goods and keep them for the claims consultant who will visit you.
7. You must immediately send us any summons, writ, notice of prosecution, other legal documents or any relevant correspondence you receive.
8. You must give us any help we may need. And you, or any person insured under the certificate, or anyone acting on your or their behalf must not negotiate, admit, settle or deny any claim without our written permission.
